Dear Community Member,

I am very sorry that you have been impacted by crime. As your State Attorney, it is my duty to help you during this time. I hope that the information in this pamphlet will serve as an introduction to the criminal justice system and help ease the stress and confusion of your unfamiliar situation.

One of the key goals of the State Attorney's Office is to help mitigate the catastrophic impact that crime has on victims and their families, offenders and their families, and society as a whole. As a victim or other witness you are a critical part of this process. As most crimes are committed outside the direct view of law enforcement, we need more than just law enforcement witnesses to prove that a crime has happened. This office will make sure that you have a voice in the criminal justice system, and promise that all we will ever ask of you is to tell the truth about what you know.

Crime often leads to unexpected and lasting consequences. Our office has a Victim/Witness Assistance Unit to assist you in navigating the criminal justice system. This Unit is comprised of trained professionals who will help provide you with emotional, logistical, and informational support. I strongly encourage you to contact your Victim Advocate if you have any questions or concerns.

Finally, I want to invite you to call on me or the Assistant State Attorney assigned to your case. Our ability to achieve justice for you is limited by the knowledge we possess, so please keep us informed. We want to be your partners in making our community safe.

Very Truly Yours,

Jack Campbell

THIS BROCHURE IS FOR YOU

We realize that for many persons, being a victim or witness to a crime is their first experience with the criminal and juvenile justice systems. As a victim or witness, you have certain rights within the system. This brochure provides an overview of both the process and your rights within the process at each stage. We hope it will assist you with any questions you may have. Our office focuses on your rights from the time of the arrest through the time of sentencing. There will be other agencies that can assist you before the arrest and after the sentencing. The last few pages of this brochure provide contact information for agencies that can assist you. For further information regarding these rights and services you may contact our Victim/Witness Assistance Program at 850-606-6117; the Prosecutor assigned to your case at 850-606-6000; or visit our website at www.sao2fl.org.

WHO IS A VICTIM?

“A victim is a person who suffers direct or threatened physical, psychological, or financial harm as a result of the commission or attempted commission of a crime or delinquent act or against whom the crime or delinquent act is committed. The term victim includes the victim’s lawful representative, the parent or guardian of a minor, or the next of kin of a homicide victim, except upon a showing that the interest of such individual would be in actual or potential conflict with the interests of the victim. The term “victim” does not include the accused.” Article I, Section 16(b)(11), Florida Constitution.

The right to due process and to be treated with fairness and respect for your dignity.

The right to be free from intimidation, harassment, and abuse.

The right, within the judicial process, to be reasonably protected from the accused and any person acting on behalf of the accused. However, this is not intended to create a special relationship between the crime victim and any law enforcement agency or office absent a special relationship or duty as defined by Florida law.

The right to have your safety and welfare as well as your family's considered when setting bail, including setting pretrial release conditions that could affect you or your family's safety and welfare.

The right to proceedings free from unreasonable delay, and to a prompt and final conclusion of the case and any related post judgment proceedings. (In appropriate cases, the prosecutor may file a good faith demand for a speedy trial. In non-capital cases, all state-level appeals and post-conviction proceedings must be complete within two years and five years for capital cases, unless the court enters an order with specific findings concerning why the court was unable to do so and the circumstances causing the delay.)

The right to be informed of your state constitutional rights, and to be informed that you can seek the advice of an attorney with respect to your rights.

AS A CRIME VICTIM, YOU ARE AFFORDED THE FOLLOWING CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS UPON REQUEST

The right to reasonable, accurate, and timely notice of, and to be present at, all public proceedings involving the criminal conduct, including, but not limited to, trial, plea, sentencing, or adjudication, even if you will be a witness at the proceeding, notwithstanding any rule to the contrary. (For this purpose, consider providing the prosecutor an address, an email address, or a telephone number at which you can be reached quickly, and update this information during the pendency of your case.) You shall also be provided reasonable, accurate, and timely notice of any release or escape of the defendant or delinquent, and any proceeding during which a right of yours is implicated.

The right to be heard in any public proceeding involving pretrial or other release from any form of legal constraint, plea, sentencing, adjudication, or parole, and any proceeding during which a right of yours is implicated.

The right to provide information regarding the impact of the offender's conduct on you and your family to the individual responsible for conducting any presentence investigation or compiling any presentence investigation report, and to have any such information considered in any sentencing recommendations submitted to the court.

The right to receive a copy of any presentence report, and any other report or record relevant to the exercise of a victim's right, except for such portions made confidential or exempt by law.

The right to be informed of the conviction, sentence, adjudication, place and time of incarceration, or other disposition of the convicted offender, any scheduled release date of the offender, and the release of or the escape of the offender from custody.

The right to be informed of all postconviction processes and procedures, to participate in such processes and procedures, to provide information to the release authority to be considered before any release decision is made, and to be notified of any release decision regarding the offender. The parole or early release authority shall extend the right to be heard to any person harmed by the offender.

The right to be informed of clemency and expungement procedures, to provide information to the governor, the court, any clemency board, and other authority in these procedures, and to have that information considered before a clemency or expungement decision is made; and to be notified of such decision in advance of any release of the offender.

ALL RIGHTS AFFORDED BY THE CONSTITUTION ARE ENFORCEABLE

Article 1, section 16(c), Florida Constitution

The victim, the retained attorney of the victim, a lawful representative of the victim, or the office of the state attorney upon request of the victim, may assert and seek enforcement of these rights and any other right afforded to a victim by law in any trial or appellate court, or before any other authority with jurisdiction over the case, as a matter of right. The court or other authority with jurisdiction shall act promptly on such a request, affording a remedy by due course of law for the violation of any right. The reasons for any decision regarding the disposition of your right shall be clearly stated on the record.

ADULT CRIMINAL JUSTICE PROCESS

The stages of the criminal justice system are as follows:

PRETRIAL - After committing a crime:

An offender may be arrested by a law enforcement officer.

A court can issue an arrest warrant.

A State Attorney's Office may file an Information; or

A grand jury may recommend charges by returning an Indictment or Presentment.

FIRST APPEARANCE - (Following the Arrest) If the defendant cannot post bond within hours of the arrest or has been arrested on a no bond offense, or committed a crime which requires a first appearance, the court holds a "first appearance" hearing. The Judge decides whether the defendant can be released and if so, what conditions are necessary to protect you and the witnesses and the public.

INTAKE - If probable cause is found, the State Attorney's Office may choose to file charges and summons the suspect into court. You may be required to meet with your State Attorney's office.

Law enforcement, prosecuting attorneys or any other government official cannot ask or require a victim of a sexual offense to submit to a polygraph examination.

FILING OF FORMAL CHARGES - The State Attorney's Office may file formal charges after reviewing law enforcement arrest reports, and within 21 days in certain circumstances. The State Attorney's office has discretion whether to prosecute a person for a crime. The State Attorney's Office must inform any victims of its decision.

ARRAIGNMENT - The accused is formally charged and enters a plea of guilty, not guilty, or no contest. The State Attorney's Office will notify you of the arraignment date. You have the right to be present at the arraignment. In some cases, there will not be a formal arraignment hearing in court.

RELEASE HEARING (SETTING BOND) - If the defendant was unable to post a bond after the initial arrest, or if bond was not set, the defendant is entitled to a bond hearing. The State Attorney's Office will notify you of the scheduled hearing and you will have an opportunity to speak regarding the defendant's release and conditions or have the State Attorney make known your wishes.

PRE-TRIAL CONFERENCE - There may be numerous pre-trial conferences (including case status conferences) that allow the court to ensure the case is progressing in a timely manner. You, as a victim, will receive notice of the hearing dates. You are not required to attend these hearings, unless subpoenaed, but you have a right to be present and a victim advocate or your attorney can accompany you or attend these proceedings on your behalf, if you choose.

DISCOVERY (PREPARATION FOR TRIAL) -

Subpoenas: You may receive a subpoena for trial, a deposition and/or other hearings. A subpoena summons a person to appear at the time date and location specified.

Depositions: The defendant's attorney can issue a subpoena for you to appear for a deposition. You have the right to request a victim advocate from the government or non-profit sector to attend the deposition with you. You have the right, as a victim who is not incarcerated, to not be required to attend discovery depositions in any correctional facility.

PLEA NEGOTIATIONS - Many cases are settled through a plea negotiation where the defendant pleads guilty or no contest without a trial. The State Attorney's Office must consult with the victim before finalizing the plea agreement with the defendant.

PRE-TRIAL INTERVENTION/DIVERSION PROGRAM - According to their discretion and office policy, the State Attorney's Office may agree to utilize pretrial intervention and diversion programs.

Pre-Trial Intervention Program: Defendants with no more than one nonviolent misdemeanor, who is charged with any misdemeanor or any third degree felony is eligible for release to the pretrial intervention program on approval of the administrator of the program and the consent of the victim, the State Attorney, and the judge. Successful completion of the program results in a dismissal of the charges.

Diversion Program: Diversion is similar to probation where the defendant accepts responsibility for the offense and is released under supervision for six months to a year. During the program, the probation office supervises the defendant. You have a right to provide the State Attorney with your opinion on the defendant's participation in the pretrial diversion program.

TRIAL - Generally, the prosecutor presents evidence to either the judge or a jury about the case. The defendant may be found guilty or not guilty. The process ends if the defendant is found not guilty. You, as a victim, may be called to testify.

The State Attorney's Office will assist you during this process. You cannot be excluded from any hearing, trial or proceeding relating to the offense. Your rights involving the trial stage are listed in this brochure.

PRESENTENCE INVESTIGATION (PSI) - You have the right to provide information regarding the impact of the offender's conduct on you and your family to the individual responsible for conducting and/or compiling the presentence investigation. You have a right to review the non-confidential portions of the presentence investigation prior to the sentencing hearing.

SENTENCING HEARING - If the defendant is found or pleads guilty, the judge reviews sentencing guidelines, plea agreements, and other factors and determines what type of sentence the defendant should receive. You have a right to provide an oral and/or written victim impact statement (VIS) to the State Attorney's Office at any time before the court imposes the sentence.

NOTE: If the victim and the offender attend the same school, the victim's parents have the right to attend the sentencing or disposition of the offender and request that the offender be required to attend a different school. (sec. 960.001(1)(s), Florida Statutes)

JUVENILE JUSTICE PROCESS

INTAKE - The process of determining where a child under the age of 18 will be placed until the case is resolved. There are three forms of detention status: home, non-secure or secure.

DIVERSION PROGRAMS - This is an alternative to trial where the juvenile is placed in a community-based program such as juvenile arbitration, juvenile alternative services program (JASP), or a treatment plan (Walker plan). If a juvenile successfully completes the diversion program, then the charges are generally dismissed.

FORMAL CHARGES - The filing of a petition in court by the State Attorney's Office. The charge may be filed in either juvenile court or adult court, depending upon the crime and age of the offender.

ARRAIGNMENT - The accused is formally charged and enters a plea of guilty, not guilty, or no contest.

ADJUDICATORY HEARING - The trial of the juvenile, conducted in front of a judge. The judge will decide whether the juvenile committed the charged offense(s).

DISPOSITIONAL HEARING (SENTENCING) - When a juvenile is found to have committed a delinquent act, the court will hold a dispositional hearing to determine which sanctions to impose on the juvenile. The sanctions could range from community-based sanctions like probation and community services up to residential commitment.

JUVENILES TRIED AS ADULTS - Juveniles who commit very serious crimes may be tried as adults. Juveniles who are prosecuted as adults may be sentenced to adult or juvenile sanctions.

This is not an exhaustive overview of the criminal justice system but is meant as an overview for how the process works.

Each court and case could have unique components. You may contact your State Attorney or law enforcement agency for more information regarding the stages of the criminal justice and juvenile justice processes.

(sec. 943.0439, Florida Statutes)

CONTINUANCES

It is not unusual for a hearing or trial to be continued or postponed. There are a variety of reasons why this occurs. For example, a witness may be ill or out of town. Every attempt is made to notify you as soon as possible of these continuances and to reschedule in a timely manner.

It is extremely important that you contact our office one day prior to your scheduled appearance to make sure the case has not been continued.

PARKING AND TRANSPORTATION

When coming to the courthouse allow extra time to locate a parking space. In Leon County you will have to park in a metered space or in the public parking garage behind the courthouse on Calhoun Street at your own expense. If you have no transportation to get to hearings or meetings with us please let us know so we can help.

CHILD CARE

Unfortunately there are no facilities to care for children at the courthouse. Since court proceedings may take some time, please try to find someone to care for your children while you attend court. If you are having difficulty, contact Victim Assistance.

PROTECTION OF VICTIMS AND WITNESSES

It is against the law to tamper with or retaliate against a witness, victim, or informant in a criminal case. It is a third degree felony to knowingly use intimidation or physical force or to threaten another person, engage in misleading conduct toward another person or to offer monetary benefit to another person. If any person threatens or harasses you because of your involvement in a criminal case, you should immediately contact your local police agency and the State Attorney's Office. If you have been the victim of domestic violence, dating violence, repeat violence, stalking or sexual violence then you may want to seek a court ordered protective injunction (commonly called a restraining order).

If you qualify for an injunction then the Judge can order the person that harmed you to stay away from you as well as any other conditions necessary for your protection.

You must complete the necessary paperwork at the courthouse.

You do not need an attorney but some people decide to hire one. Contact the Clerk of Court, Refuge House or a victim advocate for more information.

RESTITUTION

Many victims experience financial loss as a result of a crime. This includes medical bills, prescriptions, counseling expenses, funeral expenses, lost wages, property damage, property loss, or property never recovered. You should itemize and document your losses as soon as possible for our office. This should be done on the Victim Impact Statement and Losses Form we mail to you initially. Present any further bills or documentation to the Assistant State Attorney as soon as it becomes available. We will then ask the Judge to order the defendant to pay the appropriate restitution.

It is important to note that a Judge's order for a defendant to pay restitution does not guarantee payment. Many defendants are unable to make required payments or may be incarcerated and unable to pay.

VICTIM COMPENSATION

The State of Florida through the Attorney General's office has set up a trust fund to offer financial assistance to victims of violent crime who were injured as a result of the crime and are experiencing financial hardship.

Victim Compensation (also referred to as Crimes Compensation) can help pay for medical expenses, funeral and burial expenses, mental health or grief counseling, lost wages and reimbursement for out of pocket expenses such as prescription medication. They do not cover property losses except in the case where the victim is an adult over age 60 or is disabled. Victims of domestic violence, sexual battery or human trafficking, may apply for money to help them relocate away from an abusive partner. Applications can be obtained through the Victim Assistance Program. We are available to assist you in completing them. They are also available at www.myfloridalegal.com.

Once an award has been made by Victim Compensation and a defendant is found guilty of the crime, the defendant is then ordered to reimburse the trust fund.

All applications are investigated by the Attorney General's Office to determine eligibility. Victims must cooperate with prosecution to remain eligible.
